

I'm outraged that Powell is considering allowing further consolidation of media ownership. This dilutes the diversity of reporting we as American citizens want and need. This threatens an already weakened system of broadcast media.

I am upset that the proposed rule has not been published and that Powell is not accepting comments by telephone. Powell's not attending public sessions displays arrogance and contempt for the public he is supposed to serve.